“Pemaquid, Stewards by the Sea” is a new one hour documentary about the Pemaquid Peninsula. It was recorded this past August and features stories about people and places on the Peninsula, including the Light House, the Swing Bridge, Miles Tower, Fred’s Buns, Oysters, and much more. Produced by Accompany of Concord, New Hampshire, it is the 10th documentary produced by Accompany about a place in Maine. The producers will be on hand for the premier, and DVDs will be available for purchase.
